

Puff

your boxy sofa, reborn.

The Puff Collection is a boxy sofa integrated with new smart foam technology, offering the perfect balance of plush and bounce. Its premium fabric selections feels luxurious to the touch, while the innovative construction ensures both durability and effortless maintenance. The tufted detailing adds a layer of sophistication, making it as stylish as it is comfortable.

What started as a design solution for a multifamily presentation center has now become the ultimate low-profile, modular sofa built for modern living. When searching for the perfect boxy sofa, we realized that existing options were either too bulky or lacked the right proportions to fit seamlessly into any space. So, we created our own.

But comfort is just the beginning. The Puff Collection is designed to adapt—its modular pieces let you create anything from a cozy loveseat to a sprawling sectional or even a chic daybed. Whether you're furnishing a compact apartment or a spacious lounge, its depth is uniquely designed to fit effortlessly where other boxy sofas feel oversized.

And, as a fun touch, meet our cutesy robot companion—an ode to smart design that brings a playful, futuristic charm to the collection.

Blending timeless aesthetics with forward-thinking innovation, the Puff Collection is more than just a sofa—it's a statement of form, function, and effortless style. Whether you're hosting, unwinding, or simply elevating your space, this is the sofa that does it all.
